DR. C. T. WALKER LAID TO REST AT AUGUSTA—ALABAMA READY FOR FUNERAL.

By W. F. Williams

On Saturday, Aug. 11, the funeral train, which brought the body of Dr. C. T. Walker to Augusta, Ala., from Augusta, Ga., was greeted by thousands of people. The funeral train was运动 for the funeral of Dr. C. T. Walker, who was known as the "Father of Negro Education." The train was met by a large crowd of people who gathered to pay their respects to the deceased. The funeral service was held at the Washington Street Baptist Church in Augusta, where Dr. Walker had been a pastor for many years. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. W. F. Williams, and it was attended by many prominent citizens of the city. The service was followed by a procession, which included many of the students and faculty of the State University of Washington. The procession marched down Augusta Street to the Georgia Masonic Lodge, where Dr. Walker was buried with full military honors. He was cremated, and his ashes were interred in a vault at the Georgia State Cemetery.
