

Russian Admiral Robbed of Medals On Eve of Sailing
Aide of Kolchak to Risk Sojourn in Germany, and Says at Least He Can Buy Drink There Safely

Admiral Michael Smirnoff, formerly of the Russian navy, sailed yesterday for Hamburg on the Royal Mail steamship Orduna, carrying with him a high appreciation of the cleverness of American thieves.

The former Admiral, who was a side partner of Kolchak in Siberia, was relieved of a breakfast of medals and decorations which he had kept in a strong box in his apartment in this city.

On Thursday night when he was away the small safe was opened and robbed of its royally bestowed treasures. The Russian officer gave a description of the decorations to the police, but expressed little hope of getting them back.

He said that the time was not far off when the Russian people would awaken to a realization that they were the dupes of Trotsky and Lenin and overthrow the Soviet.

Admiral Smirnoff said he had no fear of his forthcoming sojourn in Germany.

"I'll be safe at least in buying a drink there," he said. "That is more than I can say of this country."

The Rev. P. T. Mignot, a retired rector of a church on the Isle of Jersey; the Rev. John Murray and the Rev. Dean Fitzgerald of Jersey City, also sailed on the Orduna.

On the Holland-American liner Rotterdam, which arrived yesterday from Rotterdam, was Baron N. Kanda, of the House of Peers of Japan, and professor emeritus of the Tokio University of Commerce. He had been in Lisbon, Portugal, as a delegate from Japan to the International Parliamentary Commercial Conference.

Baron Kanda is a graduate of Amherst and will attend the forthcoming centenary to be held at that institution.

Others on the Rotterdam were Henry White, former American Ambassador to Paris, and William Phillips, American Minister to the Netherlands.

Long Island Posse Fights Gun Battle With Bandits
Pair Sought for Attacking Huntington Grocer Escape as Shots Are Exchanged

HUNTINGTON STATION, L. I., June 18.—A posse of citizens and members of the Fire Department, under Deputy Sheriff Amza Biggs, engaged in a gun fight this afternoon with two men who are believed to have held up Robert Bryese, local manager of the James Butler grocery store, earlier in the day. The bandits escaped.

According to Bryese, two men entered the store about noon and with drawn revolvers ordered him into the back room, where they beat him on the head with a blackjack. He defended himself with a bottle and shouted for help. When assistance came Bryese's assailants fled.

The posse was formed and the exchange of shots occurred in the woods on the outskirts of the village. A man, thought to be one of those sought, alighted from a train to-night at Jamaica, and when railroad detectives attempted to accost him, he held them off with a revolver and escaped.

Woman Held for Shooting Victim, Near Death, Was a Roomer in Her Home

Mrs. Margaret Callahan, thirty years old, of 574 Eleventh Avenue, was locked up in the West Forty-seventh Street police station last night on a charge of felonious assault in connection with the shooting on Friday night of Louis Lawlor, twenty-six years old, a longshoreman, who roomed at the Callahan home. Lawlor is in a critical condition in Flower Hospital.

Mrs. Callahan is alleged to have told the police that Lawlor went into her room and began to beat her and she intended to shoot her with his revolver. In the struggle that followed, she is said to have told the police, she got the gun and Lawlor was shot.

24 More Indicted in Tulsa; Whites Charged With Looting

TULSA, Okla., June 18.—Twenty-four more indictments growing out of the Tulsa race riots were returned to-day by a grand jury investigating the outbreak. The total number of indictments now is eighty-eight.

It is understood that a number of whites were included in the latest list and that they were charged with looting and arson.

General Weather Conditions
WASHINGTON, June 18.—Pressure was low and falling Saturday over practically all sections except the North Pacific states, and unsettled weather prevailed over a wide area, with local thundershowers in the middle and northern Rocky Mountain region, the upper lake region, the Ohio Valley and at scattered points in the Atlantic States.

There also were general showers along the North Pacific Coast. The temperature was higher Saturday in the northern portion of the Middle States and in the south plateau region, and it was lower in the middle and northern Rocky Mountain states. Readings were considered above normal Saturday night in the plains states, the upper lake region, the central valley and the Southern states.

The outlook is for unsettled weather Sunday and Monday in the states east of the Mississippi River and local thundershowers are probable except in the Florida peninsula and along the East Gulf Coast, where temperature will not change materially.

Forecasts by Divisions—Western New York, showers Sunday and probably Monday; not much change in temperature.

Southern New England and eastern New York—Unsettled weather Sunday and Monday, probably local rains; not much change in temperature.

Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland—Partly cloudy and unsettled weather Sunday and Monday; local thundershowers; not much change in temperature.
