AVIATION FANS HERE ORGANIZE FIRST AERO CLUB

NEW YORK, July 19—Around 600 aviation enthusiasts met here today at the Aero Club of America to form the American Aeronautical Association, Inc. The group will have headquarters in the upper story of the American National Bank Building.

The club is a part of the American Aeronautical Association, Inc., and will be known as the Aeronautical Association of America. It was formed to promote the advancement of aviation and to assist in the development of aeronautics.

The club will have headquarters in the American National Bank Building, and will be open to all persons interested in aviation.

The officers of the club are: President, J. M. Curran; Vice-President, J. H. C. McLaughlin; Secretary, H. H. C. McLaughlin; Treasurer, H. H. C. McLaughlin; and Clerk, J. H. C. McLaughlin.

The club will hold meetings at 7:30 p.m. on the first Thursday of each month, and will open to the public at 8:00 p.m. on the same day.

WANT SOL SAL MAR EXPELLED FOR ITS SUPPORT OF NEGRO

AUSTIN, July 19—The recent attempt to expel Sol Sal Mar from the University of Texas has been referred to the Board of Directors of the University of Texas by the Board of Regents.

The case is now in the hands of the Board of Regents, and the decision of the Board will be made known to the public as soon as possible.

LEGION PLANS BIG DAY AT EVERY FAIR

The American Legion will have a large display at county fairs throughout the country. The display will consist of a large tent and a stage, and will be located in the center of the fair grounds. The display will feature a variety of acts, including musical performances, magic, and comedy.

The Legion has also arranged for speakers who will discuss the benefits of the Legion to the community. The speakers will include members of the Legion, as well as local politicians and community leaders.

The Legion plans to have a large audience at each fair, and will work to ensure that everyone has a good time. The Legion is looking forward to a successful season of fairs and will work hard to make sure that everyone has a good time.