PEACE IN IRELAND STILL POSSIBLE

Eastern Republic of Chita Is Reportedly Overthrown by Troops of Anti-Bolsheviki

In the capital of Transbaikalia, Vladivostok, Aug. 13-The Japanese Red Army, under Colonel Kordney, has overthrown the anti-Bolsheviki government of the Eastern Republic of Chita. The Japanese government has confirmed the reports, and has ordered the immediate execution of all the officials of the anti-Bolsheviki government. The Japanese government has also ordered the capture of the Russian fleet in the Pacific, and has declared war on the United States.

Father Aids Son Held for Murder

Reverend Bartholomew held as accomplice in Kennedy case, to help her fight

Diplomats of Three Peoples Who Are Involved in Irish Question Define Their Views of Problem

De Valera remains firm in fight for separation from the British Empire. Ulster Prime Minister declares solution up to England. Britain proposes that Ireland take place among the Dominions.

Four Men Perish in Big Oil Fire

Refinery blaze causes death of three at Pointe Bleue plant.

Other Are Dying

Scores injured and millions in damage to property result from tank explosion.

Clear Water Is Promised Today

Mud of yesterday caused by cleaning of huge storage tanks.

FINANCERS WILL HOLD PARLEY TOO

 Probably will be same time and place as Arms Conference.

NO DEFINITE PLANS

Idea is to bring bankers of the world together to form a single organization.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Made public at virtual deadlock.

Great Britain offered complete autonomy to Irish at virtual deadlock.

De Valera offered to submit Ulster questions to arbitration.

Secession right denied.

Lloyd George says terms submitted are best England can offer.

NOTICE

London, Aug. 14—The correspondence between the British and Irish ministers, Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Eamon de Valera, has reached a deadlock. While there is a deadlock on the Irish side, the British government has offered to discuss the question of autonomy with the Irish government. However, the British government refuses to discuss the question of independence. The British government has also offered to discuss the question of the Irish Free State with the Irish government. However, the Irish government refuses to discuss the question of the Irish Free State with the British government.

CONCLUSION

In his final letter Mr. Lloyd George has offered to discuss the question of independence with the Irish government. However, the Irish government refuses to discuss the question of independence with the British government. The British government has also offered to discuss the question of the Irish Free State with the Irish government. However, the Irish government refuses to discuss the question of the Irish Free State with the British government. The British government has also offered to discuss the question of autonomy with the Irish government. However, the Irish government refuses to discuss the question of autonomy with the British government. The British government has also offered to discuss the question of the Irish Free State with the Irish government. However, the Irish government refuses to discuss the question of the Irish Free State with the British government.